[From Our Regular Correspondent.] Washington, December 16.—The Ways of the southern matrimonial and natal and Means Committee resumed the consideration of iron and steel to-day, and it is evident that a majority will continue to by unpleasant dreams, and adhere closely to the tariff-commission's report. An influential Democratic mem-ber of the committee ber of the committee expressed the opinion tions. in their spartment some horrible to me to-day that this course will be pursued until the tariff bill is framed. He said that owing to an adroit change in the classification of articles it is most difficult to ascertain the real changes in the tariff in a great many cases. He said there is a marked reduction in the duty on chemicals, and rather an increase of duty on glass, This is particularly the case with females and earthernware, and all kinds of porcelain, &c. The reduction on iron, he further said, is not real, yet upon the face of the There is a large iron delegation here from Pennsylvania, and a sugar delegation er to their household duties.
